DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-27, 29-31, 33-38 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,479,035. The examined claims are anticipated by the reference claims, or in other words, claims 1-27, 29-31, 33-38 are generic to all that is recited in claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,479,035. Specifically, instant claim 1 is drawn to a metered dose inhaler comprising a solution of fluticasone and a propellant wherein the mouthpiece has an orifice of diameter 0.25mm or less. Claim 2 recites the added limitation of a low volatility component and a solubilising agent. The reference claim 1 is drawn to a solution formulation comprising fluticasone, a propellant and a low volatility component and a solubilising agent. It is also disclosed in the specification of U.S. Patent No. 6,479,035 that "in a typical arrangement the valve stem is sealed ...and the actuator orifice has a diameter in the range of 0.2 to 0.45mm.... and preferably less than 0.25mm" (see col. 7, lines 17-26).

Claims 1-27, 29-31, 33-38 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,630,129. The examined claims are anticipated by the reference claims, or in other words, claims 1-27, 29-31, 33-38 are generic to all that is recited in claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,630,129. Specifically, instant claim 1 is drawn to a metered dose inhaler comprising a solution of fluticasone and a propellant wherein the mouthpiece has an orifice of diameter 0.25mm or less. Claim 2 recites the added limitation of a low volatility component and a solubilising agent. The reference claim 1 is drawn to a solution formulation comprising fluticasone, a propellant and ethanol as a solubilising agent. It is also disclosed in the specification of U.S. Patent No. 6,630,129 that "in a typical arrangement the valve stem is sealed ...and the actuator orifice has a diameter in the range of 0.2 to 0.45mm and preferably less than 0.25mm (see col. 7, lines 52-63).
